

Susquehanna Association for the Blind and Vision Impaired

Lancaster, PA

Professional Design & Construction, Inc. provided construction management services for the Queen Street 3-story facility, which included spaces for administration and support services, associated renovations to the existing facility, a warehouse addition, and related site improvements. The successful completion of this project required a high level of logistics coordination on busy city streets. Throughout design and construction, special provisions were continually considered for the visually impaired.

